

LIBRARIES OF MIDDLESEX
AUTOMATION CONSORTIUM
BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the Organization shall be Libraries of Middlesex Automation Consortium, A New Jersey Non-Profit Corporation, hereinafter referred to as LMxAC or The Consortium.

ARTICLE II
REGISTERED AGENT

The regular agent for this Consortium shall be Evelyn M. Hartmann, Attorney, located at One Woodbridge Center, Suite 209, Woodbridge, NJ 07095

ARTICLE III
PURPOSES

The purposes for which this corporation is formed are:

To act as a non-profit consortium of libraries centered in Middlesex County, New Jersey; and

To establish, operate and promote the use of a shared automation system for its members; and

To establish, operate and promote all aspects of cooperative automated projects and resource sharing so that a higher quality of library services will be provided to all residents within its area; and

To seek funds from other organizations including, including foundations, libraries corporate entities and governmental agencies to effectuate these purposes.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERSHIP

Section I Eligibility to Join

Any library wishing to join the Libraries of Middlesex Automation Consortium must make a written application to the organization, accompanied by a resolution passed by the majority of the library's governing board. This application will include the library's reasons for seeking membership and a statement agreeing to abide by the Consortium's By-laws and Rules and Regulations.

Applications must be approved by a majority vote of the Consortium's Executive Board members.

Section II Membership

Membership consists of all full participating members, associate members, and contractual members. The characteristics, rights and responsibilities of these types of members are defined in the Rules and Regulations set by the Consortium.

Section III Voting

Each member library shall designate one voting representative to LMxAC. The representative is the Library Director unless notification of a different voting representative, an alternate, is provided to the LMxAC Office. Such votes shall be cast at meetings, in person, by the authorized member, or alternate, provided that the vote is submitted in writing prior to the meeting of the membership. Action will be based upon a majority vote of eligible members, present at any meeting, except as otherwise specified in these bylaws. A library must have paid its membership assessments in order to be eligible to vote.

Section IV Powers and Duties

The members shall be responsible for formulating Rules and Regulations and for the operation of the shared automation system(s); for setting equitable fees for the purchase, operation and maintenance of the system; and for the election of officers to carry out the business of the Consortium.

Section V Liability of Members

No member library will be liable as an individual library for the debts of this organization.

Section VI Withdrawal

Any member wishing to withdraw from the Consortium must give written notice by its governing body to the Executive Board by October 1 of any year. Such withdrawal will be effective at the end of the Consortium's fiscal year.

Any member who does not abide by the Rules and Regulations of this Consortium may be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the current members. Such member shall be given a written notification of this action by the Executive Board.

No refunds of funds paid to the Consortium by the member will be given to any member who withdraws, resigns, or is removed from the organization.

ARTICLE V EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section I Number, Composition and Officers

The Executive Board shall consist of eight (8) members. Six (6) members are elected at large for three year terms, one (1) seat is permanently held by Middlesex County College and one (1) seat rotates annually among the membership. The President will appoint, and the Board will confirm, a membership representative to be selected alphabetically from the membership to serve a one (1) year term as member representative. If a member declines its opportunity to serve on the Board in this capacity, they will lose their turn until the next time in the rotation order.

The officers of this organization shall consist of President; Vice-President; Secretary and Treasurer. Terms for these offices shall be one year. Board officers shall be elected by the Board at its June meeting.

Section II Eligibility

All members of the Executive Board must be representatives of member libraries of the Consortium. Board members must be representatives of member libraries in good standing. Library directors or their designees are eligible to sit on the Board. Nominations must come from the library director.

Section III Election

Elections for at-large members of the Executive Board will take place via online secured voting. The vote shall be cast by each library's director or designated alternate. In the event there is no sitting director or a library director is unable to participate in online voting, it is incumbent that the President of the Library Board or the Director notify the Executive Director of LMxAC of the designated alternate in advance of the election. Elections will be scheduled over a one (1) week period to provide ample opportunity for directors or their alternates to vote. Elections will commence one (1) week prior to the Membership Meeting in June, ending at 9AM on the morning of the meeting. At-large members are elected by a majority vote of electronically cast ballots.

Section IV Term of Office

The term of office shall be for three (3) years for at large members of the Executive Board. Terms shall be staggered so that no more than 2 at large Board members are selected each year unless as noted in Section VII. Members of the Executive Board shall be installed at the close of the annual meeting and shall serve three years or until their successors have been duly elected, qualified and have entered upon a discharge of their duties.

Section V Limitation on Consecutive Terms

Members of the Executive Board may serve on the Board for no more than six (6) consecutive years.

Section VI Duties of Officers

The duties of the Officers of the Executive Board shall be as follows:
